FIRE DESTROYS LIMA BUILDING

Loss in Department Store Blaze $150,000; Firemen Rescue 3 Women.

By The Associated Press.

LIMA, O., Sept. 19—A spectacular fire destroyed a three-story building housing the J. J. Newberry department store in the business section here early today. Loss was estimated at $150,000. The store employed 38 persons.

Mrs. John Bogardus, 68, and Mrs. Lucille Walter, 38, who occupied apartments on the upper floors, were overcome by smoke. They were carried to safety by firemen as was Mrs. Alice Reed, 62, an invalid.

The blaze, believed to have started in the basement, was discovered by Dr. J. C. Newton, a dentist, with offices in the building. He detected the ordor of smoke while in his offices at 2:30 a. m.

Dr. Newton, former athletic director at Ohio Northern university, roused other occupants of the building.

An adjoining department store, employing 100 persons, was forced to close temporarily because of smoke damage to its stock.

DEALERS IN POULTRY WILL ADOPT BYLAWS

New Organization Meets Here Tonight; Expansion Plans Made.

Country poultry dealers in a radius of 60 miles of Marion will meet Thursday night in Hotel Harding to name their newly-formed organization and to adopt bylaws which have been drawn up in the hope of writing unfair practices out of competition among dealers.

While dealers in this district prepared for the meeting, officers of the group today were busy on plans to expand the organization to include all Ohio.

Anticipating a rapid growth to include the entire state, a committee Thursday night will suggest that the group be called the Ohio Poultry & Egg Buyers' association. Bylaws to be acted on Thursday night also have been drawn on the assumption that the association will become statewide.

These developments were reported today by George Underwood of Marion, secretary of the new organization, who with C. W. Sowers of Lexington, president, has been active in the country poultry dealers' efforts to rid their ranks of unprofitable and unfair competitive methods.

Most of Thursday night's program will be given to discussion of the bylaws and aims of the association, and plans to bring about fair competitive practices among dealers, Mr. Underwood said. One hundred dealers are expected.

CURFEW FOR NIGHT CLUBS

By The Associated Press

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 19—Because neighbors complained the music was too noisy, a curfew of 1 a. m. was ordered for night clubs here by Safety Director Ed Cook. Applauding the move, Prosecutor Arthur Hooper said he'd copy it for Jefferson county.

GOVERNMENT OPENS CASE AGAINST DAVIS

U. S. Senator Goes on Trial in Moose Lodge Lottery Case.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 19—The government opened its case against United States Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania today on an indictment charging the shipment of lottery tickets across state lines in 1931.

A motion to consolidate this indictment with another which charged the same violations in 1930 was withdrawn at the opening of court by Prosecutor Louis Mead Treadwell.

The jury to try Davis and his co-defendant, Theodore G. Miller, was selected yesterday.

Treadwell told the jury that the Loyal Order of Moose, of which Davis is director general, and Miller the secretary of the propagation department, conducted Mooseheart charity balls" in 1930 and 1931.

"Tickets were sold for 50 cents each," he said, "and they entitled the holder to attend local charity balls and to participate in national distribution of cash prizes.

"They took in $3,000,000," he continued. "On the first ball $1,500,000 of which $150,000 went to Mooseheart, an orphans home and school at Mooseheart, Ill.

"There is no doubt that Mooseheart is a worthy enterprise. If all the money raised for it went to it, it would be still more worthy."

Lost Flier is Rescued from Swamp

Three-Day Hunt Ends; Was Driven Off Course By Wind.

By The Associated Press

JACKSON, Mich., Sept. 19—A 60-hour search for Harold L. Neff, 25-year-old mail pilot who lay all that time beside his wrecked plane in a swamp, was at an end today with the flier recovering from a broken leg, a broken arm, exposure and hunger in a hospital here. Neff, who dropped from sight Saturday morning after leaving the Toledo airport for Cleveland, was found last night by three boys in the swamp, 11 miles east of here.

H. L. NEFF

He took off from a Chicago airport Friday night in a single motor plane when the regular passenger flight was cancelled by the United Air lines because of bad weather.

Refueling at Toledo, Neff took off about 2 a. m. Saturday, flying eastward in fog and a strong north wind. The wind, he said, apparently threw him far off his course. Some distance out of Toledo he lost his radio signals. After more than an hour, Neff said he sighted a body of water and a beacon light that he took to be the signal at Chippewa, a Cleveland suburb. Airport officials here say that undoubtedly Neff had sighted the beacon light at Grass Lake, Mich.

By the time he discovered his mistake the plane was too near the ground to straighten out, and it crashed in the swamp.

His arm and leg broken, he was helpless, and wrapping himself in the folds of his parachute, Neff waited through the three days and two nights for the help that arrived just in time.

The injured flier was found by Robert Parrott, 13; William Dakin, 13, and Floyd Callahan, 13, Leon school students, who were hunting for botanical specimens in the marsh.

Bob Quinn New Business Manager of Brooklyn Team

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 19—Judge Steve McKeever, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, today announced that Bob Quinn, former owner of the Boston Red Sox of the American league, would succeed David Driscoll as business manager of the Dodgers.

Driscoll announced his resignation today and it was followed shortly by the announcement of the appointment of Quinn to take his place.

Quinn, former business manager of the St. Louis Browns, sold the Red Sox to Thomas Yawkey and Eddie Collins last spring and acquired control of the Reading team of the New York-Penn. league, which he operated through the season just closing.

Quinn began his baseball career in Marion, catching for the local independent professional team which played on the fairground diamond about 35 years ago.

PRESIDENT UNABLE TO RECEIVE GROUP

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19—A copy of the demands of the cotton conference for inflation of the currency to increase farm commodity prices and to guarantee 20 cents a pound price for cottons was left at the White House today after the members were informed the President was unable to receive them.

The indisposition which kept Mr. Roosevelt confined to the executive mansion yesterday still required him to be very careful today. He has a slight cold, it was said.

RAIL REMOVAL TO START SOON

Both C., D. & M. and City Prepare To Fulfill Agreement on Right-of-Way.

$1,000 PAYMENT READY

To Apply on $5,000 Traction Receivers Will Contribute for Track Expense.

The first $1,000 payment on $5,000 which the C., D. & M. Electric Co. receivers have agreed to pay the city of Marion on provision that the city dispose of abandoned interurban rails inside the city limits will be made within a few days, M. L. Sandebur, one of the receivers for the C., D. & M. said today.

At the same time he said a deed for the C., D. & M. right-of-way and the rails will be turned over to the city.

City officials said work of disposing of rails will begin as soon as the C., D. & M. is through using the rails to haul away the salvage from the Marion-Bucyrus division of the interurban.

Removal of rails on the Marion-Bucyrus division is progressing toward Marion at the rate of half a mile a day. It is expected that all salvage work on this division will be completed in two weeks.

Detailed plans for disposing of the rails have not yet been worked out, city officials said. No plans are being made for the North Main street section in view of the proposed resurfacing of that street with federal and state funds.

ASSEMBLY FAILS TO WORK OUT PROGRAM

Little Prospect of Aid for Weak School Districts Is Indicated.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 19—A legislature, without a program and with little prospect of developing one to aid weak school districts was back in session today.

The house, with barely a quorum present, met for 30 minutes last night and then recessed until this afternoon.

From all appearances the same procedure was in sight for today's session, with the senate still "week ending." The senators, willing to quit, reconvene tonight.

Meanwhile the problem of financing weak school districts remained in the balance, with most of the leaders holding out for sine die adjournment until after the November elections.

They predicted that the school bill that to give aid to weak districts and another to appropriate about $4,000,000 for the next two years for parochial schools would be informally tabled until a more opportune time.

There was some sentiment for passing the weak school aid bill and appropriating $3,000,000 for the remainder of this year from the general revenue fund, but Governor White's promise to veto it unless additional money was found for the general revenue fund acted somewhat as a "cold bath" for that idea.

TIFFIN, O., Sept. 19—An order banning hazing at Heidelberg college was issued by Charles E. Miller, president. Students previously had condemned the practices of paddling new students.

Kidnap Trial Defendant Identified by 2 Youths

Bates Heard To Make Boast of Plot; Urschel May Go On Stand Today.

By The Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 19—Herbert K. Hyde, United States district attorney, announced today that two farm youths, one related to three defendants in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping case, had "positively identified" Albert Bates as one of the two men who boasted at noon July 22, trat they were "going to kidnap a guy soon."

The youths, Gay Coleman and Carl Wilson, live near Stratford, Okla., where the prosecution has indicated it will seek to prove Bates and George Kelly, missing machine gunner, awaited the hour for their swoop upon the unsuspecting Urschel at his home here the night of July 22.

Coleman is a cousin of the T. C. Coleman family. Mrs. Coleman, 74-year-old mother of Mrs. Ora Shannon, at whose Texas farm Urschel was held captive nine days will be among the first federal witnesses.

Hyde said he took the boys to the eighth floor of the federal tower this morning and they pointed to Bates, held prisoner in the "bull pen" there with Harvey Bailey, another principal defendant in the case, saying "that's him."

The boys, Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Urschel, may precede the wealthy oil man on the witness stand, Hyde indicated. Their testimony is expected to be brief and if this procedure is followed Urschel may reach the witness stand during the day to recite his story.

Arguments Heard in Luer Case

By The Associated Press

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Sept. 19—Presentation of evidence by which State's Attorney L. M. Geers hopes to send five men and a woman to the electric chair for the kidnaping of August Luer, was delayed temporarily today for arguments by attorneys on the admissibility of defendant's statements.

To conserve time, Geers offered all statements collectively, immediately after the jury had heard the stories of Luer, 77, and his 75-year-old wife, yesterday, but defense attorneys objected strenuously and the jury was excused from the courtroom.

Judge G. H. Mudge then gave defense attorneys until this morning to examine the statements, and he will hear additional testimony and arguments before announcing his decision.

While on the witness stand, Mrs. Luer calmly pointed to Percy Michael Fitzgerald, one of the defendants, and said: "That is the man. I identified his picture after the kidnaping and I identified him in the 'shadow box' after his arrest. I am still sure of it."

The state contends that Fitzgerald, "Irish" O'Malley and Gracie Chase, or Allen, invaded the Luer home at Alton the night of July 10, last, and dragged the aged banker and meat packer away to be held five days and nights before being released when ransom negotiations failed. O'Malley and Miss Chase have not been arrested.

In addition to Fitzgerald, defendants on trial are Mike Muolala, Charles Chessen and his wife, Mrs. Lillian Chessen; Randol, Eugene Norvell, a handaman, and Christ Nicola Gitcho.

TWO STATES VOTING ON DRY ISSUE TODAY

New Mexico and Idaho Go To Polls To Act on Repeal.

By The Associated Press

New Mexico and Idaho were having their say about prohibition today.

Clear skies, beckoning the rural vote to the polls, encouraged the drys in Idaho, home of that long-time friend of prohibition, Senator Borah. Allied drys predicted a vote of more than 100,000 with "well over 50,000" opposing repeal. William Healy, a repeal candidate, envisioned a 15,000 repeal majority out of a total vote of 75,000.

In New Mexico, foes of prohibition predicted at least a 2 to 1 majority for repeal. The voters, however, displayed much more interest in another matter on the ballot, the question of limiting property tax levies.

These two states, the only ones to vote on repeal this week, are the thirtieth and thirty-first to ballot on the question. The other 29 all have approved wiping the eighteenth amendment from the constitution. Approval of 36 states is necessary to amend the constitution.

SINGLE CODE TO GOVERN ALL RETAIL STORES

Minimum Profit of 10 Per Cent Above Wholesale Considered by Board.

STABILIZATION IS GOAL

Johnson and Aids To Check Operation of Steel Agreement.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19—Retail price fixing plans supplanted the coal code in the attention of NRA officials today.

Economists and legal experts of the NRA were pushing forward studies upon which is to be determined the final administration policy toward the application of retail trade groups for a minimum price control in their master code.

Hugh S. Johnson was in the midst of this job, pressing for completion of a master charter to embrace all retail trades, with their hundreds of thousands of stores and millions of employes, within a single fair competition code. Outstanding among its issues was a proposal to stabilize retail prices at 10 per cent above wholesale costs.

The price control provision was responsible for much of the great importance attached by Johnson to the retail trade code. What the administrator recommends to Mr. Roosevelt on this point and what the President approves was expected to provide an exposition of the administration's policy on price-fixing.

To Study Steel

NRA officials, probably including Johnson, tomorrow will give the steel industry's operation under a code of fair competition its first official study.

Temporarily sidetracking the price control issues of the retail trade code, biggest immediate problem of the organization, the top men of the NRA will go to New York for a meeting with the board of directors of the American Iron and Steel Institute, which is the code authority for the industry.

Kenneth M. Simpson, deputy administrator in charge of metals and mining, Donald R. Richberg, the general counsel, and Dr. Alexander Sachs, chief economist, will go.

It was understood that original estimates that code operation would add $64,000,000 to the annual steel payrolls were proving too conservative and that the increase would be nearer $100,000,000 a year.

Since a preliminary meeting with officials several weeks ago, the steel institute has virtually revised sales and price procedure to bring prices from various types of mills to a uniform basis for like products.

Signs Coal Code

President Roosevelt's promulgation of the long disputed bituminous coal code freed Johnson for intensive work on the retail agreement and for planning the "Buy Now" campaign through which the administration hopes soon to increase consumption.

Mr. Roosevelt's pen last night made the coal code effective Oct. 2. But before he signed, the Chief Executive made certain alterations which included elimination of a provision organized labor charged sought to interpret its collective bargaining guarantee under the recovery law.

"Because it is evident," Mr. Roosevelt said, "that attempts by those submitting codes to interpret section 7 (A) of the national industrial recovery act have led to confusion and misunderstanding, such interpretations should not be incorporated in codes of fair competition.

"Therefore paragraph (B) of ar-

WOMAN EXONERATED OF BLAME IN DEATH

Coroner Says Evidence Shows Accident Victim Walked Into Car.

Mrs. Mabel Haines, 27, of Byhalia, driver of the automobile involved in a traffic accident last Wednesday night, which claimed the life of George H. Oller, 70, of 202 North Grand avenue, was exonerated of blame last night by Coroner Milton F. Axthelm at the close of an investigation in police headquarters.

Coroner Axthelm said evidence produced by Mrs. Haines and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lucille Haines of near Richwood, convinced him that Oller walked into the side of the car and that Mrs. Haines was not responsible for the accident.

Suffering from a nervous breakdown since the accident, Mrs. Haines came to police headquarters Sunday noon and identified herself as the driver of the car, a Chevrolet sedan. Police and the coroner then began the investigation which closed last night.

Mr. Oller died in the city hospital about six hours after the accident, which occurred at East Center street and Grand avenue.

Main Street Improvement Limited To Resurfacing

Improvement of North Main street from George street to Copeland avenue, at the corporation limits, will consist only of resurfacing the present brick pavement with bituminous mterial, Mayor W. C. Phillians and Service Director E. O. Uncapher learned yesterday in a conference in Columbus with officials of the state highway department.

Definitely Settled

The conference, in which the city officials met with C. L. Moyer, planning engineer of the state highway department, settled definitely the question of whether the improvement would include widening and repiacing the present macadam base with concrete.

The work, Moyer told the mayor and the service director, will be done by contract. The contracts, he said, probably will be included in one of two lettings scheduled for this month by the highway department. The labor, it is expected will be obtained from lists furnished by the federal-state-city employment office here.

The project will be financed by public works funds from the federal government.

No Decision on Kenton Av:

Mayor Phillians and Mr. Uncapher also took up the matter of improving Kenton avenue from the Erie railroad to the west corporation line but learned that state and federal authorities have made no definite decision about including the project in the program.

Possible widening of a section of Main street from Copeland avenue north to the junction of state route 4 and federal route 23 also remains an unsettled project, city officials learned.

STATE TO IMPROVE UNION COUNTY ROAD

Route 42 Section One of Four To Be Let Oct. 6.

A section of federal route 42 in Union county has been included in a group of four projects to be let by the state highway department Oct. 6, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Columbus.

The contract will call for 4.182 miles of concrete highway, estimated to cost $140,204.45.

The cost of the four projects to be let on that date is estimated at $808,690.74.

CARRIES ALL-BRAN ON EVERY VOYAGE

Seaman Finds This Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Here is an unsolicited letter from Mr. Darragh:

"I have been going to sea for the past fourteen years. Every trip, I underwent severe headaches, nervousness, and sleeplessnes. Tried all sorts of remedies, and received only temporary relief.

"So hearing about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN thought I would get a box, which I did. That was six months ago, haven't been without it at home, and when I go to sea a box of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is always with me."—George D. Darragh, 1914 32nd Avenue, Oakland, California.

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things for common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

How much pleasanter this is than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily will correct most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

NUDISTS OBJECT TO CABARET NUDISM

By International News Service

PARIS—Nudists in Paris are protesting against the nude. The nude, they declare, is perfectly proper in its right place but this place is not the gay night cabarets of Montmartre and the music-halls of the Grands Boulevards.

"Nudism," reads their declaration in the review, 'Vivre,' "was not intended to be served up in such form to old men who would be far better off in their beds, or to middle-aged women excited by a glass or two of champagne. All this is anti-hygienic and very much contrary to the laws of the true nudists."

Postoffice Janitor, Born in Slavery, To Retire; Music To Be Pastime

After more than a decade and a half of service as custodian at the postoffice Alvin Winfield Gardner is going to hang up his mop and dustcloth to devote to his favorite instrument, the guitar and other musical pastimes. He will retire Sept. 30 after a few months more than 16 years in continuous service at the postoffice.

Born in slavery Mr. Gardner doesn't know how old he is, but his years of service based on his age as nearly as can be figured entitle him to retirement with pension.

Mr. Gardner took up his work at the postoffice under Postmaster Frank Campbell. His duties around the postoffice brought with them a wide circle of acquaintances many of whom never failed to find him the time of day or to offer a friendly word about the weather or other current item.

Handy With Tools

Mr. Gardner says he is going to teach music, play the guitar and other instruments and fix radios and do all sorts of odd jobs. And when it comes to the last named, employes of the postoffice testify that there is some horse for adjusting lights, mending plumbing and the dozens of other items listed under the heading of "odd jobs."

Mr. Gardner was born in North Carolina—"one of the best states for my people south of the Dixie Line," he declares. His father and mother and his seven brothers and three sisters belonged to Grafton Gardner who owned about 2,000 acres of land near Greensboro, and kept about 150 slaves. He was pretty fair to his slaves but he would buy and sell, he recalls. The family was kept together with the exception of one brother who at the age of 10 years was sold into Alabama and his family never heard of him afterwards. His mother was born in Virginia and brought into North Carolina when she was four years old. She was bought and sold three times before coming into the Gardner family. At one time she was taken into the cotton belt to be put up for sale and she was returned to North Carolina. One of her owners, Mr. Gardner recalls hearing her tell, beat his slaves every Monday morning, "just to let them know he could." His father was the blacksmith on the plantation.

Saw Yankee Troops

Mr. Gardner has vivid recollections of hanging on the fence and watching the Yankees go by and remembers, that, according to the older children, dire things were in store, should one of the Yankees capture you. He went to a school near the Gardner plantation, taught by a wealthy Quaker woman, Judith Mendenhall, who established it for colored people in the face of threats from the Ku Klux Klan and others who disapproved of education for the colored folks.

When the slaves were given their freedom the Gardner family came north and their master went down into Texas. Before he left for the South Mr. Gardner visited the blacksmith and his family in their cabin and ate with them.

The journey north in 1872 was an exciting one for the children of the Gardner family. They occupied a coach with dozens of other colored travelers and because the train didn't run very fast and they were held over in some of the towns the journey required six days. Food on the trip consisted of meat and bread which could be prepared by Mrs. Gardner before leaving home and when the family arrived the $17 and few cents the father had to bring his family to the land of promise had been spent and there wasn't "a peck of meal" in the larder. The elder Gardner went to work at his trade, purchased a home at South Woodbury, in Morrow county, and reared his family. A brother, James Gardner, who with Mr. Gardner is the only surviving member of the family now occupies the old homestead.

Mr. Gardner resided for several years in Indiana and graduated from the Carthage High school in 1884. He later attended Earlham college at Richmond, Ind. for a year. One of the happiest times of the year for him is his annual trip [illegible] ...harvesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner live at 477 N. [illegible] Greenwood street. They have one daughter, Mrs. Forest Frazier [illegible] Greenwood street. He is a member of the Park Street A. M. E. church and of the K. of P. [illegible] colored branch at South Woodbury. He always has been interested in music and for years was a member of a quartet which sang at Park Street and other churches in the city. He also was a leading band in Marion a number of years ago. Prior to going to the postoffice to work he was janitor of Epworth M. E. church.

The Stars Say

For Wednesday, Sept. 20

THE ASTRAL influences bearing rule on the affairs of this day are read as having a very exciting, stimulating and propitious sway, breaking up long stagnant and frustrating conditions and making way for a veritable whirlwind of activity and progress. This follows a major piece of good news, inspiring to high initiative and a bold spirit of taking long chances. Speculation, investment, new projects and all pertaining to promotions, publicity or writings should thrive.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a splendid year with much activity in the direction of stabilizing the fortunes, either by speculation, bold strokes, long chances, as well as through the sounder route of hard labor, solid investment, or accumulation of other real possessions. Elders also help and those in power and position may be depended upon to further high ambitions. All pertaining to writings or publications should prosper and private affaire bring happiness.

A child born on this day should be brilliant, versatile, industrious and ambitious, reaching high place in life.

OUTRAGEOUS FORTUNE

A Serial by Patricia Wentworth

NOT a shred of the past was there to guide this man as he walked into the great adventure in which Caroline Leigh was destined to play a major role. Old Neighbors

(Will Rogers Special)

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Sept. 19. Hope the oil business gets straightened out, for it is tough. Just today, in a movie I was making, had a scene where I met an Indian. During our conversation I found out that was an Osage. That's the rich tribe that lives by us down in Oklahoma.

Why, when oil was going good, an Osage wouldn't have even spoken to a poor Cherokee. They used Rolls-Royces for trailers.

See now where the French are about to go off the gold? If we get as much enjoyment out of them going off as they did us, we ought to feel great all winter.

Yours,

Will Rogers

NO MONEY Is No Excuse!

SUPPOSE dollars are scarce. Is that a valid reason for letting human beings die from tuberculosis when they might otherwise have been cured? Is that cause enough to permit thousands of people to be exposed to the dreaded germs from sufferers who should be segregated and undergoing proper care and treatment?

The fearful White Plague does not wait for empty exchequers to be replenished. Tuberculosis takes no holidays.

Funds seem always available for fighting disease in hogs, sheep and cattle. Money turns up to further "Get Well in Ohio."

NOTHING should be permitted to stop the fight against tuberculosis. Every locality should make adequate provision for the care of needy tuberculous patients for the safety and protection of all. Write for free copy of "Blacking Out the White Plague."

Published in the interest of tuberculosis treatment by the Rocky Glen Sanatorium, McConnelsville, Ohio, the oldest private tuberculosis sanatorium in Ohio.

"I LEARNED MIRIAM HOPKINS' BEAUTY SECRET"—

1 "A few years ago," says Miss Minerva Fedyn, of New York, "I was so unhappy. I realized I wasn't very attractive to the boys in our set and naturally that made me miserable."

2 "One night when I was at the movies I noticed how exquisitely lovely Miriam Hopkins' skin looked in the close-ups—how its beauty stirred you. What wouldn't I give to have a skin as lovely as that!"

I DISCOVERED ...this soap contains precious elements skin itself has...and must have to stay YOUTHFUL!

SCIENTISTS EXPLAIN

3 "Next night I was thrilled to read in the newspapers how Miriam Hopkins cares for her lovely skin—and some wonderful things scientists say about this beauty care . . ."

4 "I began at once to use Lux Toilet Soap faithfully. I really expected results—and I really got them! In a very short time my skin grew so much lovelier I was overjoyed."

"NO MORE HEART-ACHES NOW!"

5 "Nice skin does make a difference! Nowadays I'm far and away the happiest girl in our crowd. My skin is soft, smooth, and clear—really lovely! I don't know what it is to spend a lonely evening—or to go without the compliments that every girl wants to have. I certainly wish I'd realized sooner how very attractive lovely skin is—and what to do to have it!"

For every type of skin—dry, oily, "in-between." 9 out of 10 screen stars, including Miriam Hopkins, Paramount Star, use fragrant, white Lux Toilet Soap. Why don't you try this simple beauty care?

"This Soap the Screen Stars use is a Wonderful Aid to Complexion Beauty" SCIENTISTS DECLARE

Here's the Reason...Skin grows old-looking through the gradual loss of certain elements Nature puts in skin to keep it youthful. Gentle Lux Toilet Soap, so readily soluble, actually contains such precious elements—checks their loss from the skin.

Homemaker's Question Box

Question—Striped wallpaper is said to be in style this fall. Will it be suitable for my living room which must be redecorated soon?

Answer—Many striped patterns on wallpapers will be on the market this fall. The stripes seem to have returned with renewed vigor. These are bold effects as well as tiny stripes, but size is a deciding factor. Bold stripes because of their size and peppermint stripes. Latticed designs and plaids are also shown. Although stripes may be considered in style, it does not necessarily mean they will be desirable in your room. The size, shape, arrangement and lighting of your room determine the kind of stripes to use. If your room tends to be low, avoid using the vividly colored stripes in the average or small room or the room which seems filled with furnishings. In that case the pattern should be very soft and striped. The character of the stripes, too, are a deciding factor. Bold stripes because of their size can only be used where furnishings are of same. Bold stripes make a poor background in the average room.

But at this had been a ...ago Sergeant Mulvey had said he would be here by midnight, and he had not yet come.

Colin turned uneasily away from the window, and his eyes roaming around the room, fixed and held on an open letter that lay upon the writing desk. Furrows gathered between his eyes. It was the letter that, under a pledge of secrecy, had taken him to Cap à l'Ours. But Roddy was dead and Lazarre was dead now and his promise to Roddy was no longer binding.

For that reason he had told Sergeant Mulvey at the Wine Press what he then knew about Lazarre, and, for that reason here on his return to this room, extracting it from inside the lining of one of his bags where he had hidden it, he had opened and read the letter Roddy had entrusted to him.

It was a long letter, many pages of it, closely written on both sides of the sheets. He had spent an hour over it. And now he laughed out suddenly—mirthlessly. The memory of that night at the Cascade river and the burning clubhouse came vividly back to him.

A human life was a human life, and even had he then known Lazarre was the Mask he still might not have acted very differently; but had he known what was in that letter, had he known what he knew now, he would have hesitated long before he had lifted even a finger to save Lazarre's life.

He raised his hand and brushed it across his eyes. Lazarre the Mask! Queer that he had saved Lazarre's life at all!

The door opened and closed. Sergeant Mulvey came across the room, tossed his hat into one chair and slumped wearily down in another.

"Began to think I wasn't coming at all, eh?" Sergeant Mulvey flung out. "Well, I couldn't help it. The first check-up started something hot, and I haven't had a minute. Anyway, I've got some news for you. French Pete's real name, you know, was Pierre Mireau. Well, Joe Lazarre's real name was Louis Mireau. They were brothers."

Colin's lips were tight.

"I know it," he said. "It's rather ghastly."

"That!" exclaimed Sergeant Mulvey savagely. "Forget it! But how do you know they were brothers? You didn't know it when you were telling me about Lazarre down there in that dump, did you?"

In a secret compartment of the keepsake box, Madge's father finds a message from the grave.

I HARDLY dared to breathe as my father looked down into the cavity in my mother's japanned box, the existence of which I never had suspected.

It was no such elaborate arrangement as the secret compartment in the lock-box bequeathed to Marion Morton by her grandmother, and which we now knew contained so important and dangerous a secret, to be disclosed upon Marion's eighteenth birthday. It was simply a small recess beneath the padded lining, appeared to adhere to the bottom of the box. But to my father this cavity with its contents was evidently of supreme importance, and I saw his face brighten unbelievably as he took an old-fashioned tiny jewel box from it.

"Surely she wouldn't keep the empty box!" I heard him murmur. And then, as he opened the box and took out a sapphire ring in an odd style, but exquisite setting of tiny diamonds, I saw his face break up into waves of emotion; and with something very like a sob he brought the ring to his lips, bending his head so low that I could not see his face.

I lay motionless, silent, wishing myself anywhere but where I was.

But when he lifted his face to mine, wet with tears so rarely shed by a man of his caliber, I realized that those memories had not been all tragic—that from somewhere in that long distant past he had received comfort and healing.

"Forgive me, darling," he began, but I interrupted him.

"Forgive you?" I repeated. "It is I who should crave forgiveness for remaining here while you examined this box."

"Who else should share this sacred hour with me?" he queried tenderly.

"Did she never tell you about this?" he asked after a long minute.

"Never," I replied. "I did not even know until this minute that there was a cavity in the box."

"You didn't?"

There was such surprise in his tone that I was emboldened to voice a thought which had come insistently to me during the last few seconds.

"No, and father—" I looked at me sharply.

"Tell me," he said tersely.

"She told me so much else. We had no secrets from each other. And you know she told me almost with her dying breath that I was to hold no bitterness against you."

"I know she loved me," he said unsteadily.

"That I am sure of," I went on, "if she did not leave the ring in this cavity as a message to you."

"What makes you think that?" he asked hoarsely.

"I have been thinking it out in my mind. I never knew since I saw this cavity, the existence of which I had never suspected although I have handled the box frequently, both before mother went away, and afterward. She knew how I prized the box and that I never would part with it, and—" it was my turn to stare at him—"I remember it was a queer request once she made of me."

"What was it?" His words were but a strained whisper.

"She made me promise that I would write out directions that the box should be buried at my death. Don't you see? She never meants anyone else but you to see this ring." She knew that if you found me, we would be very close, and that some time I would show you this box. It is a message to you!"

With the ring poised in his hands as if it were a sacred religious relic and he a devotee he gazed at me wonderingly, then a look of happy belief settled in his eyes.

"I feel that you are right," he said. "It is a message of forgiveness from her."

But I was not yet satisfied. My feminine mind told me that a woman would not be content to leave it to chance without a writing word. I slipped among my pillows and extended my hand to him.

"May I see the box a second?" I asked.

WHEN LOVE CHECKS OUT

This is the season of reckoning when a girl prepares to check up on her summer flirtations—and a man prepares to check out of his.

• • •

There are few feminine bigamists, says Reno Ruth, because even a much-marrying woman prefers her husbands one at a time; but there is probably no man living who doesn't secretly envy and admire King Solomon's cooperative idea.

• • •

The honeymoon has set in the west, when the bridegroom stops saying, "What is that delicious perfume?" — and begins saying, "What did you pay for that stuff?"

• • •

Mrs. Solomon says: Go to. A woman resembleth a dog, which is full of thankfulness for whatsoever kindness it receiveth. But a man is like unto a cat, in whom there is no remembrance of past favors. And the cry in his heart is always "Next!"

• • •

The only stop-signal an attractive man receives, these days, appears to be the one he gets from the traffic-lights.

• • •

Bo-Peep's Diary: Lay late, this morning, wondering why my husband, poor wretch, does continue to quote me the opinions of that doctor who declares that a woman's "nervous troubles" are all in her imagination. Methinks he is giving many husbands a bum steer, which may lead them to a quick and early death, by shooting. No man can rob a woman of her "nerves," with safety!

• • •

A woman is middle-aged if she can remember when the headwaiter used to lean over and inform her coldly that "ladies are not permitted to smoke, here."

• • •

It is a woman's heart and vanity, not her senses that are weak. Sex, without romance, love and tenderness, has very little appeal for the average woman.

• • •

A modern woman can do everything a man does—except pass a millinery window without stopping.

Daily Guide to Health

BY DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND.

Walk Your Way to Good Health.

THE OTHER DAY I was amused by the sight of several adults roller-skating in a city park. Skating is a beneficial exercise, but everyone will agree that until one becomes expert there are many hazards connected with this form of recreation. Yet, it is gratifying to learn that this healthful exercise is again popular, particularly in the outdoor form.

I hope that interest in walking will now be revived. Many of you recall the days when walking was a popular sport in this country. Walking clubs and hiking parties were popular outdoor sports, indulged in by the young and old. Unfortunately, the interest in this health romoting exercise has greatly dwindled during the past few decades.

The value of walking as an exercise cannot be overstated. It is especially beneficial for those who require a certain amount of exercise and cannot indulge in strenuous performances, which to them are dangerous. Fortunately, walking is a form of exercise that is within the reach of everyone. It requires no equipment other than a good pair of shoes and the determination to walk.

Many constitutional ailments can be traced to the lack of exercise. Poor complexion, lack of appetite, indigestion, inability to sleep, constipation, headache, and irritability — these are a few signs of ill health that rapidly disappear when moderate exercise is taken. There is no better way to get it than in the form of walking.

Unfortunately, the increased popularity of automobiles has eliminated the need of walking. Going without it has influenced the health of the nation as a whole. I believe in the automobile, but let us not forget we have feet.

It is a mistake to neglect and overlook the value of walking. My advice is to walk whenever possible. In this way you will improve your health and protect against those ailments that result from lack of exercise.

When you walk keep the body erect, the head up and the abdomen in. The chest should be high and the shoulders thrown back. Relax, and swing your arms freely from the shoulders as you walk on the balls of your feet.

Probably you have not been accustomed to walking. In that case it is advisable that you begin with gradual amounts of this valuable exercise. Increase the length of your walks slowly and do not indulge in them to the point of fatigue.

There are those who avoid walking because they complain of pain in their feet. This is often due to some foot disability that requires medical attention. It is foolish to neglect the feet. Go to one who is expert in their care. You will bless me for this suggestion if you act upon it.

Fewer Army Posts.

President Roosevelt has approved the plan to abandon some 70 army posts, consolidating their personnel with others as an economy measure which carried sound logic.

The only theory on which small posts may be scattered throughout the land is the immediate availability of an armed force in case of need. This defense of the plan is weakened by two very potent reasons. In the first place, there is no apparent need for any great distribution of soldiers. The country is at peace, internally and externally, with nothing on the horizon to cause concern. In the second place, modern transportation has made the army so mobile that a new appraisal of distances must be made. When the soldiers rode on horseback there was perhaps some occasions for scattering the outposts over a wide expanse of frontier but when high speed trucks can carry them several hundred miles in 24 hours, concentration becomes feasible and sensible.

In the army as in everything else overhead costs decrease in inverse ratio to the size of the operations and 50 posts can be operated with considerable less relative expense than 100. This is a field in which economy will be welcome. An army in peacetime is always a rather expensive luxury but one which must be maintained.

By concentration the army may be equipped better, trained more extensively, rationed with greater economy and handled with greater expediency in case of emergency.

Every argument seems to be on the side of the President's action and the program is a forward step in the cause of national economy which sometimes seems to have been overlooked in the general plan of restoring the nation to its economic balance.

A Pleasant Day.

Ohioans in all corners of the state know William A. Julian, new treasurer of the United States. A good many years ago he was Democratic candidate for something or other—was it United States senator?—in one of those off years in which the Democrats were blanketed under a storm of Republican pluralities.

Mr. Julian, himself, probably entertained no delusions of success but he toured the state and his geniality won friends for him everywhere.

When the Democratic administration moved into Washington, Mr. Julian, who has been the patron of Ohio Democracy for a couple of decades, became treasurer of the United States. Not many of us know what are the duties of the office but it seems that a part of the job is to sign all paper money. Of course the treasurer doesn't put the pen personally on every bill. He writes his name once and an ingenious machine reproduces the signature on the rest of the issue.

Be this as it may, callers at the office the other day found the treasurer beaming and a stack of brand new money on the desk in front of him.

"Have a new bill," he said cheerily to each caller. "Take one for each of the children." Visitors were taken by surprise. They had not heard of any general distribution of wealth but the treasurer then called their attention to his name, carefully written in the corner of each bill. He was passing them out as souvenirs of the first issue of Julian currency. He had an unusually large number of visitors during the day and the tokens cost him something more than $500.

Mr. Julian can afford pretty whims like this for he has been eminently successful in the business of manufacturing shoes. He is also quite a success as treasurer in the estimation of some 500 persons who dropped in at his office on souvenir day.

To Point Out History.

Ohio, a pioneer in the marking of highways to make travel easy for strangers, has been a laggard in making them so they will also become interesting. This state was one of the first to establish a continuous system of numbering its roads but it stopped when the practical purpose of speeding transportation had been accomplished.

Many of the other states have gone to great pains to provide historical markers so that travelers, as they ride, may read of the interesting or important incidents which once took place in the localities through which they are passing.

Special To The Star

MT. GILEAD, Sept. 19 — When the eighty-third Morrow county fair gets under way next Tuesday James W. Pugh, 74, will be on hand to render his fiftieth consecutive year of service to the fair.

For a 37-year period, ended four years ago, Mr. Pugh was ticket taker at the main gate, and in that position became acquainted with a majority of Morrow county residents. Although he gave up this job four years ago, he has been on hand each year to relieve the ticket man during lunch hours, as he will do again this year.

Fair work is not the only activity Mr. Pugh has undertaken on a half-century basis. He has been a member of the Mt. Gilead Masonic lodge for 51 years, and has served as an officer of the lodge practically all of that time. For 37 years he has been a member of the Marion Commandry.

For 57 years, Mr. Pugh has carried the same timepiece—a watch bought with money he earned as a boy of 17.

Mr. Pugh's possessions include a broadaxe which his grandfather, Jesse Pugh, carried from Jamestown, Va., to Fairfield county and used in clearing a tract of land and erecting a cabin near Baltimore, O.

BELIEVE MISSING BOY JOINED SALES CREW

Father Holds Conference With Police; Youth Left Home Week Ago.

Possibility that William Hartle, 15, missing from his home at 1029 Bennett street since a week ago yesterday, may have joined a traveling advertising or selling crew was expressed by members of the family this morning.

T. P. Hartle, father of the boy, conferred last night with police over a report that the boy was seen the day of his disappearance talking with a man carrying a satchel. Mr. Hartle holds the opinion that the man might have been a crew manager enlisting the boy's service as a house-to-house canvasser.

Police were to investigate further into the report today.

The family has not heard from the boy since his disappearance.

OHIO FARM YOUTHS IN REGIONAL EVENTS

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 19—Three Fredericktown, Knox county, youths who won first place over 147 other teams in stock judging contests held here last June, will go to Springfield, Mass., to represent Ohio in a regional dairy cattle judging contest Friday.

The future farmers are Paul Smith, David Swank and Stanley Aligire, and they will be accompanied by their agricultural instructor, J. H. Lintner.

Teams from 13 states, composed of students of vocational agriculture, will compete in the regional event.

All three members of the Ohio team were seniors in the Fredericktown high school last year.

Red Cross Board Plans for Meeting Here Oct. 25

Date Moved Up One Day; Reports of Activities for Month Are Given.

The date of a regional conference of Red Cross chapter officials and workers in northern Ohio, to be held in Marion, was changed from Oct. 26 to Oct. 25 last night in the monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Marion County Red Cross chapter.

Change of the date was made necessary because of conflicts of other engagements, chapter officials said. The conference, expected to bring 200 or 300 officials and workers here, will have its headquarters in Hotel Harding. Morning and afternoon sessions are planned, with nationally known Red Cross workers scheduled as speakers.

Miss Hane Reports

A report of the chapter's production committee, headed by Miss Alice Hane, showed shipments of clothing supplies arriving daily for needy persons in the city and county. These shipments, officers said, will continue until the chapter's quota of 11,008 garments has been filled.

The garments are distributed through the city relief center for needy persons in the city and through the township trustees for those in the county. Miss Hane will be at the city relief center on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons to distribute the garments to the township trustees. The city's share has been turned over to the relief center for distribution.

Addition of two examiners to the life saving program here was announced. The examiners, Harold White and Miss Jean Drake, passed Red Cross tests in Columbus and have been working with Mrs. Ethel Bauman, life saving and swimming chairman for the chapter. The outdoor pavilion is now completed although the workers will assist with indoor swimming classes at the Y. M. C. A. this winter.

Mrs. Bauman's report showed that two had passed the senior life saving test, 27 passed the junior life saving test, 176 were taught to swim, 36 passed the beginners test and seven passed the swimmers' test.

Secretary's Report

Volunteer service on two staff assistants in the chapter office totaled 84½ hours, Miss Lillian Black, acting executive secretary, reported. Office interviews totaled 225, she said, with 34 of these concerning ex-service men's claims. Work was completed on 13 cases and 102 were continued for further investigation, Miss Black reported. Sixteen visits also were made.

Mrs. Frank Kraner reported on activities of the production committee. Activities of Miss Alma Denney, county tuberculosis nurse, who substituted for Miss Mary Breneman, Red Cross nurse, who was on her vacation in August, included 88 maternity visits, four prenatal visits, 79 for bedside care and two to infant cases.

Mrs. Walter F. Mory was appointed to have charge of enlisting church clubs, sorosities, civic groups and women's clubs in the Red Cross annual system of sending Christmas bags to men in military or naval service in foreign countries. In most cases officers said, these bags are the only Yuletide greetings these men receive.

Paul E. Bachman, chapter treasurer, gave a report on the finances of the chapter.

Advance for Dr. Turley

Marion friends of Dr. Turley consider his appointment to the Central church on Broad street in Columbus, as a considerable advancement for him. In the four years that Dr. and Mrs. Turley have lived in Marion they have taken an active part in the social and civic life of the city. Dr. Turley served as vice president and program chairman of the Marion County Ministerial association last year, and was on the publicity committee of the Kiwanis club. Mrs. Turley was a member of the Research club, a literary group, and was director of the East Side Mother Singers chorus, a group which she was active in organizing.

Rev. Markley will move to Marion this week and will preach his first sermon at Epworth church on Sunday morning. Rev. and Mrs. Markley have four children, three daughters and one son. Rev. Markley served the Norwood church for the last six years.

In the closing sessions both conferences passed resolutions and heard reports which will affect the stand of all Ohio Methodist churches during the coming year.

The Ohio conference attacked proposed production curtailment as "morally wrong and economically unsound," asserting that there is not over-production but rather under-consumption.

LEGION PLATFORM DRAFT COMPLETED

Demands for Equitable Disability Compensation Scheduled for Action.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 — Demands for equitable disability compensation and for action to curb the spread of communism have been drafted for almost certain adoption by the American Legion's 1933 convention, Oct. 2-6.

Program covering compensation and hospitalization for disabled veterans of all wars already has been adopted by half of the legion's state departments.

So favorable has been the reaction to the program that its author, Ed Hayes of Decatur, Ill., has come to be considered virtually assured of election as national commander.

One of the provisions calls for restoration of the 25 per cent reduction in compensation payments made in the economy drive of last March.

It also provides that compensation to a veteran may be lowered only on proof of improvement of his condition, that a service-incurred disability rating may be removed only upon proof of fraud, that any war veteran is entitled to free government hospitalization if he is unable to pay, and that payments to widows and orphans or dependents can not be lowered.

"Thousands of veterans and their dependents have been reduced to suffering because of unwarranted reductions in compensation, in some cases entire withdrawal of the payments," Hayes said in making public the plans.

SHERIFF MAY COLLECT FEES

Ruling Gives City Court Authority To Issue Warrants to County Officers.

Apparently reversing a former opinion, Attorney General John W. Bricker has advised the state bureau of accounting that the Marion municipal court may issue warrants to the sheriff of Marion county for executions in violations of state laws, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Columbus.

This ruling clears up uncertainty of many months' standing regarding the rights of the sheriff to collect fees for serving criminal papers out of the municipal court.

Previous Ruling Different

Last May 22, the attorney general issued an opinion holding that the sheriff was without that authority after the question had been raised by state examiners who were working here.

Under the new ruling, issued yesterday, the sheriff apparently is to serve criminal papers out of the municipal court and collect his mileage fees for serving them from the county treasurer, although the city will get all the fees in these criminal cases, officials said.

To get around the provisions of the previous opinion, sheriff's deputies for several weeks have made a practice of apprehending "on suspicion" persons wanted by the municipal court. These persons were not arrested by the deputy but were brought into the city where the municipal court bailiff waited with a warrant and made the arrest. This practice, officials said, will no longer be necessary in view of the new ruling.

Bailiff To Get Fees

D. Scott Belt, municipal court bailiff, will be entitled to collect fees for serving papers in state cases in the future, as a result of the attorney general's opinion. Although the bailiff serves state papers only in the absence of other officials who regularly handle them, it will affect his fees on approximately half a dozen cases a year, court officials estimated. These fees will be paid from the county treasury, under terms of the ruling.

CHICAGO Sept. 19 — Michigan is shedding tears over the loss of Harry Newman but the rest of the Big Ten thinks they are crocodile variety.

Newman? Yes he was good . . . wait till you get a peek at a fellow named Phil Renner. He may rival coaches for . . . make Michigan forget all about Newman.

Press releases from Ann Arbor indicate that Michigan is well fortified in all positions except that left vacant by Newman, the All-American quarterback who was chiefly responsible for the Wolverines' Big Ten championship last year. However, Coach Harry Kipke has plenty of material, 10 candidates for the job, but he can't make up his mind as to which one is most capable of filling Newman's shoes. Dolph Stan Fay, Louis Westover and Emil Tessmer are regarded as the most promising contenders with Renner listed among the best of the "outside" players.

LEVINSKY HAS EYES ON CARNERA AFTER DEFEATING SHARKEY

Former Champion Takes But One Round of Rough Match.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 19 — King Levinsky, Chicago West Side battler, today had his eye on Primo Carnera's world heavyweight boxing title following his defeat of Jack Sharkey former champion, in a fast and tumble battle at Comiskey park, home of the Chicago White Sox.

Matchmaker Nate Lewis of the Chicago stadium, much impressed by Levinsky's marvelous showing against Sharkey last night, said he would open negotiations with the Carnera management at once. The bout, if arranged, will take place in the Chicago stadium this fall. Carnera has met and defeated Levinsky twice.

The defeat practically eliminated the ex-gob as a heavyweight threat although he has another bout booked with Tommy Loughran at Philadelphia, on Sept. 27. However, his share of the receipts in both fights is $25,000.

Sharkey entered the ring a favorite, but the money of his backers went glimmering in the first round. Levinsky rocked Jack with a hard right and followed with another that floored the ex-champion for a seven count. Later in his dressing room Sharkey admitted that he never recovered from that first blow.

Sharkey was unable to use any boxing science against the bull-like charging Levinsky and hit low in the fifth round. The seventh was the only round that Jack won. He appeared to have recovered somewhat and peppered the King's head with his left and shot hooks to the body.

A smarter boxer would have knocked Sharkey out. King failed to take advantage of the opportunities when Jack staggered around the ring in a daze.

Sharkey weighed 201 and Levinsky scaled 4½ pounds more.

Promoter Sammy Wolff announced the show was a financial success. The attendance was 20,317 and the gross receipts $52,996.40. Sharkey received $25,000 and Levinsky about $8,600.

N. B. A. Plans To Select One Set of Champs

By The Associated Press

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 19—One of the standing jokes of boxing was tottering today as the National Boxing association awaited solicited approval of a plan to agree on world's champions and have one list of title holders instead of two.

In annual convention here, the N. B. A. voted last night to ask New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and California to sanction a working agreement for handling general ring affairs.

James Brown, Detroit, N. B. A. president, termed the convention action as "a great stride toward elimination of a very severe headache."

The convention which last night backed up Mississippi and Kansas in their demands that Jack Dempsey be suspended until he makes restitution to promoters in those two states for losses because of Dempsey's unfilled refereeing dates, was ready to act on several proposals.

These included non-recognition of championship fights of less than 15 rounds duration, labeling as exhibition matches where champions come in overweight, greater protection for amateurs, bonding of promoters and withdrawal from the International Boxing union.

Giants Need One Victory, Senators Two To Clinch Pennant Races

...ed Press
...w was just ...day for the ...l Washing... a dramatic ...e years ago. ...d to clinch ...nnant for ...l was one ... or a de... feat for their only rival, Pittsburgh. Washington, seeking the American league bunting for the first time since its two-year reign in 1924-25, was just half as well off. The Senators needed two victories, two New York defeats or a combination of one triumph and one Yankee reverse.

It was possible neither flag would be clinched today but the Giants, slated to play their final game at St. Louis while the Pirates tangled with the Phillies in a double-header expected to end the National league race by nightfall.

They let just such an opportunity slip through their fingers yesterday but the 4-3 decision they dropped to the St. Louis Cardinals worried them less than the narrow escape "Fat Fred" Fitzsimmons had from serious injury.

The veteran right hander held a 2-1 lead with two men out in the second inning when a line drive from Bob O'Farrell's bat cracked him on the neck. Fitz went down in the dirt and lay gasping as his teammates rushed to his aid. Soon he staggered to his feet and was led to the club house where an examination revealed he had suffered no serious hurt.

Despite this defeat the Giants moved closer to the pennant for Pittsburgh did no better than an even break in a twin bill with the Phils. Paul Waner's homer in the eighth gave the corsairs the first game, 2-1, but Ed Holley came back with a four-hit shutout in the nightcap and the Phillies won 6-0. The Boston Braves pounded out 14 hits to wallop the Cincinnati Reds, 8-2, while Brooklyn beat the Chicago Cubs 6-4.

Following the Giants' lead Washington also picked up ground although beaten. They bowed to the St. Louis Browns 4-2, but moved one game closer to the flag when the Yankees split a double-header with the Chicago White Sox.

Johnny Allen held the White Sox to two hits as the Yankees won the first game, 6-1, but the pale hose came back to take the nightcap 4-3 behind the steady pitching of the Dallas recruit, Leslie Tietje. Lou Gehrig hit a homer in each game to bring his season's total to 29.

Oral Hildebrand also pitched two-hit ball as Cleveland blanked the Boston Red Sox 9-0. Homers by Cramer, Johnson and Higgins helped the Philadelphia Athletics nose out Detroit 8-6.

Les Fishbaugh always can be depended upon to furnish plenty of excitement. This he did in the semi-final when he defeated Jack Hagen of Jackson, Miss.

A series of punishing hiplocks gave Hagen the first fall in 14 minutes in a bout full of action. Crotch slams damaged Hagen's back and Fishbaugh took the second in eight minutes. Hagen walked into one in the last fall when he apparently attempted to use a pile driver. Fishbaugh reversed it and won in 30 seconds with a back drop.

Ham Hamilton, who can claim more draws than any other local preliminary wrestler, was awarded an even break with Jack Friley in the curtain raiser. Both are from Marion.

YAROSZ VICTORIOUS OVER VINCE DUNDEE

By The Associated Press.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 19—Twice victor over a fighter who has been practically at the crest of the middleweight division for several years, Teddy Yarosz, 23-year-old Pittsburgh sensation, looked about today for a chance at the much disputed title that many boxing veterans believe will soon be his.

Yarosz' first decision triumph over the veteran Vince Dundee, of Bellville, N. J., in Pittsburgh recently was such a surprise that few followers of the fistic game, especially those in Dundee's home state, were able to realize it could be true. But the youngster came right into Dundee's own territory last night and repeated his conquest in a bristling 10-round setto.

FRANKIE BLUE OF MARION IS BEATEN

By The Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 19—"Rough House" Glover, young Jacksonville, Fla., middleweight, knocked out Frankie Blue of Marion, O., in 30 seconds of an eight-round bout last night. The southerner after a few swift punches caught Blue with a left hook to the chin.

AGOSTA VICTORIOUS

Agosta defeated a combination of the Hogan's Runts and Merchant Greys baseball team of Marion Sunday 12 to 5. Harruff, Agosta twirler, fanned 12 men.

OHIO COLLEGE TEAMS GET NEW STRENGTH FROM LATE ARRIVALS

Early Scrimmage Sessions Bring Reports of Injuries To Players.

By The Associated Press.

The Ohio collegiate football world was deep in the training season today, with late additions to gridiron squads in many parts of the state filling out the ranks of the varsity candidates.

Meanwhile several of the squads were decimated by injuries, most of them the result of early scrimmage sessions.

The Otterbein Cardinals were one aggregation to have their prospects brightened by the addition of a former player, Bob Albright of Dayton, who played on the Cardinals 1931 squad, returned to school after being out a year.

The return of three more letter men to Kent State boosted the total number of candidates to 30.

When Robert Rupprecht of Marysville turned up at Tiffin, the Heidelberg Student Princes saw their stock on the football market go up. Rupprecht will be used at fullback. In yesterday's scrimmage session Robert Seele, Carl Ernest and Jack Welter, sophomore backs, exhibited their skill at blocking and Kenneth Fields and Tony Rogala, experienced backs, went through a speedy drill.

Two linemen whom the Yellow Jackets at Berea had not expected to return to school have reinforced the Baldwin-Wallace forward wall. They are Charles Minch, who played center three years ago, and Sophomore Nick Muckle, a tackle candidate.

The casualty lists included two Wittenberg letter men, Red Kurth of Gary, Ind., and Red Meder of Cleveland were disabled with injured knees. At Ohio university Coach Don Peden was handicapped by the absence of several injured candidates.

Miami university's first casualty of the season was Watson Kruseski of Dillonvalle, who turned a knee in tackling practice. Kruseski, a fullback and a good passer, will be out a week.

Except for Ohio Wesleyan, where daily workouts are being cut to one session, other football camps were hard at work. Coach Bill Bernlohr at Capital university ran through his entire squad searching for a good punter and found two, Bud Trueman of Cleveland and Don Elsass of Columbus.

Ohio Northern's squad held its first scrimmage and four huskies were singled out to bolster the Polar Bear line. At Alfred Holbrook college in Lebanon Coach Mendell E. Beattie declared the line was showing well on offensive work and praised the work of Hannons, a fullback candidate.

In the Series

This is the first of a series of sketches on individual stars of the New York Giants and Washington Senators, world series rivals.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 19—If you're seeking a ready-made hero for the approaching world series between the Giants and Senators, don't overlook John (Blondy) Ryan.

The six-foot, 180-pound rookie shortstop from Lynn, Mass., has been one of the most important factors in the drive of the Giants to the National league flag.

His batting average is only slightly stronger than .3.2, but he's a hitting fool in the clutches, a brilliant if slightly erratic fielder and possessed of a fighting spirit that has been invaluable to the Giants' morale.

"Made" Their Infield

A weak hitting "busher" from Buffalo, they called him at the start of the season. Yet he "made" the Giants' infield. Mostly by sheer nerve and hustle.

He went out with a spike wound in July, and the Giants promptly hit the skids, their only real slump of the season. He was hitting only about .170 at the time, but without him the Polo Grounders could not beat an egg.

The wound still was far from healed when Blondy, unable to stand it any longer, sent his famous wire to Manager Bill Terry: "Will be with you tomorrow. They can't beat us."

He was in there the next day, limping and wearing a shin guard. The Giants won, broke the slump that had bound them for two weeks and resumed their steady march to the flag. Blondy still wears the shin guard.

There in the Pinches

Ryan, the son of a policeman and a former football and baseball star at Holy Cross, makes plenty of errors. But he seems to make 'em when it doesn't matter much. In the pinches he knocks the fans out of their seats with his stops and throws.

BLONDY RYAN

He'll strike out three times in a row when there's no mate on base. But on his fourth trip, if the Giants are a run behind and runners waiting to be driven in, he's most likely to knock all the paint off the center wall.

ONE GAME IS NEEDED BY BIRDS TO CLINCH FLAG OF ASSOCIATION

Series Deadlock Broken by Columbus 7-5 in Overtime Game.

By The Associated Press

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 19—The tight tussle for the American Association championship goes into its sixth game today with Columbus needing one more victory to qualify for playing the International league pennant winner in the junior world series.

Making hard work to score seven runs of 15 hits, including five homers, one triple and seven doubles, the Red Birds squelched Minneapolis 7 to 5 in the fifth game Monday, gaining a 3 to 2 game advantage in the series.

Yesterday's game was pushed into an extra inning when with two on and two out in the ninth, Joe Glenn, Miller catcher, slapped the ball out of the park to make the score five all. A homer and two doubles off the fourth Minneapolis pitcher of the game, provided the winning margin in the tenth.

AL ESPINOSA HOLDS LEAD OF 6 STROKES

Akron Golfer Shatters Par in Fight for Ohio Open Title.

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., Sept. 19—With a six strokes lead on old man par and the field, Al Espinosa of Akron, Portage was hot on the trail of a repeat victory in the Ohio open golf championship today.

Yesterday the Spanish caballero from Montevista carted a sensational 138 over his home course to carefully jockeying his putts into the cup in the wake of somewhat erratic tee and iron play. Today 36 more holes of medal play finish the race.

Espinosa's morning round of 66, five strokes under perfect figures, set a new competitive course record for Portage. In the afternoon he slipped a trifle for a 70, one under par. During the 36 hole trip he recorded only 84 putts.

Six strokes behind on even par were three of the states best known professional shotmakers, Archie Hambrick of Zanesville, Al Alcroft of Youngstown and Lloyd Gulickson of Cleveland.

Still another stroke behind was Jack Collins of Mansfield, with 143, while in the bracket at 145 were Charlie Lerma of Columbus and Ed Kirby of Akron.

The best amateurs could do was 147, turned in by Mel Carpenter of Columbus, holder of the state public links crown, and Jack Munro of Barberton, a former state amateur champion.

STOCKS TAKE ERRATIC PATH

Sharp Break Puzzles Traders; List Steadies but Activity Dwindles.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 19—Ghosts of uncertainties scampered through the security markets today and the feeling of their mysterious gambols brought shivers to the more timid traders.

There was actually little to account for the erratic movements of stocks. The share market was unpredictably irregular during the first hour, but there was a sharp and rather weird break in the second which flossed the list with losses of 1 to 3 or more points by half an hour the selling was fast. Then short coverings of all the leaders and a moderate rally retrieved some of the severe declines. The activity, however, dwindled noticeably on the recovery. The sudden response all around found no answer in bank rates or cles. Grains and cotton were lively steady. The dollar was a bit easier, displayed some resistance in foreign exchange dealings and were again heavy.

Mining Shares in Decline

Most of the metals shares sagged with the rest of the market and the volatile Homestake slumped 20 points at one time. Noranda however managed to set up a point. There was little to choose from in the various stock categories. Issues off 1 to 2 or more included American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Allied Chemical, American Can, Case, Chrysler, Johns-Manville Industrial, Du Pont, Western Union, U. S. Smelting, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Pennsylvania, National Distillers, Consolidated Gas and U. S. Industrial Alcohol.

In line with the efforts to anticipate further depreciation of the dollar, bankers call attention to the activity of some foreign government bonds during the past several weeks. Loans of such countries as France, Holland and Switzerland interest on which are payable in gold, have been making new highs almost daily under the demand from American investors. Holders of these bonds of course expect to see values of their securities rise in proportion to the decline in the gold value of the dollar. Some of these bonds of the said countries, with coupons ranging from 5 to 7 per cent are selling around $1.60 per $1,000 par value bond.

While most financial observers are still cheerful regarding sound domestic stocks for the long pull, some of them feel that near future disbursements of many of the larger corporations may be affected adversely by the workers of the NRA. With the campaign to increase employment and at the same time, minimize the advance in prices so that wages can catch up with the procession it is felt that less attention will be paid to dividends during the next few months and more to the consideration of general economic and social gains.

WHEAT PRICES MOVE UPWARD

Inflation Possibilities Continue To Exert Bullish Influence on Pit.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 19—Wheat advanced briskly in late dealings today, more than overcoming the effects of a weak spell met with earlier.

Export buying support which developed on setbacks was accentuated by persistent efforts of certain quarters looking toward a new international agreement. Notice was served by Argentine crop damage advices and of injury to Canadian wheat by continued rains over the prairie provinces as well as reports of rapid progress of signing of United States wheat acreage reduction contracts.

Wheat closed firm at virtually to 1¼ to 1¾ net gain, corn ½ to 2 up, oats ¼@¾ advanced, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents decline.

Many options changes fractionally above and below $1.01 a bushel for May delivery of wheat were later followed by a downward swing of more than two cents a bushel from $1.00⅝. The chief influence on news development directly affecting grain was a London dispatch saying the world wheat commission had arranged for a conference, probably Friday, with representatives of Russia. The purpose of the conference was stated to be to fix a wheat export quota for Russia to avert threatened dumping of Soviet wheat on the world's market.

Giving impetus to the fall of wheat values was weakness of securities in New York. Corn as well as wheat tumbled more than two cents. Pressure on the corn market was apparent from the outset today, and was attributed largely to liberal receipts, 207 cars today against 124 a week ago and 98 at this time last year. Oats gave way with wheat and corn.

Provisions lacked support.

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, Sept. 19—A reduction in the city's rate for water [illegible] was offered by the Mt. Gilead Water, Light, Heat & Power Co. at a council meeting Monday night. The reduction of $10 a year for each hydrant from the present rate of $50 means an annual saving to the city of $500.

Economic conditions preclude possibility of any reduction in the minimum rate of $4 a quarter, Garver said.

Not like any other cigarette

The United States Government granted Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company the right to use "Chesterfield" for cigarettes

THIS means that the Chesterfield formula — that is, the leaf and the manufacturing formula — is different from that of other cigarettes.

For a cigarette to be milder and to taste better, it has to have in it ripe, mild, mellow tobacco, and the right quantity of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco. Then the cigarette has to be made right.

You can prove for yourself that Chesterfields are not like other cigarettes. They're milder . . . they taste better.
